

Manager, Community Relations South Shore, NS

Join the ambitious and quickly growing Health Services Foundation of the South Shore (HSF) as they seek a communications or marketing professional with a passion for healthcare and community impact to become their newest Manager, Community Relations. In this exciting role, you will have the opportunity to be a key support person for HSF, embarking on a full rebranding strategy of the organization, being the primary contact for donors and clients to share their stories, and, most importantly, bringing passion and empathy to how those stories are told. The Manager, Community Relations will be more than marketing; you will be an important public figure and ally for the community of Lunenburg County.

About the Health Services Foundation of the South Shore:

The Health Services Foundation of the South Shore is dedicated to enhancing healthcare services through community support. Guided by values of accountability, professionalism, collaboration, community-centric innovation, compassion, stewardship, inclusivity, continuous improvement, and integrity, HSF is looking for a leader who excels in these areas.

The Role:

The Manager, Community Relations will create a renewed level of community awareness for HSF and lead planning, project management, and the successful delivery of core communications programs and activities, including the annual report, communications and marketing support for the annual, major, and community fundraising programs, and content management for all social media channels and the website. The Manager, Community Relations will strive to have HSF as the local charity of choice.

Why Join the Health Services Foundation of the South Shore?

Joining the Health Services Foundation of the South Shore means more than just a job—it's an opportunity to make a meaningful impact on healthcare in the community. We are looking for a candidate with at least (five) years of proven success, preferably in healthcare. Expertise in supporting major gifts, annual giving, planned gifts, and special events is essential. With strong communication, leadership, and organizational skills, you will thrive in our collaborative and inclusive work environment. You'll be part of a dedicated team committed to excellence and innovation, with plenty of opportunities for professional development and growth.

Join the Health Services Foundation in their mission to enhance healthcare services for the South Shore community.
